“LSE helps students prepare for bright futures in a dynamic world. Our motto “rerum cognoscere causas” means “to know the causes of things,” and was chosen to support the School’s founding purpose, “for the betterment of society.” Our globally renowned Summer School gives you a unique opportunity to share in this tradition of academic excellence and participate in an international exchange of ideas.”

Baroness Minouche Shafik
Director of LSE

Welcome to LSE Summer School

Welcome to the London School of Economics and Political Science, one of the foremost social science universities in the world.

LSE is a global community of people and ideas in the beating heart of central London. We're a specialist social sciences university, ranking third in the world in the QS subject rankings 2022 and as top university in London in the Complete University Guide 2023.

LSE Summer School offers an exciting range of courses across the wide spectrum of LSE's world-class teaching, taught by leading scholars in their fields. In 2023, we'll celebrate 35 years of the LSE Summer School, during which time our festival of learning has grown to be the largest of its kind in Europe.

At Summer School, you'll gain an invaluable insight into leading-edge thinking in each discipline and be encouraged to reflect on the key issues facing society today.

Professor Wim Van der Stede
Dean of LSE Extended Education

Professor Van der Stede is the CIMA Professor of Accounting and Financial Management and Dean of LSE Extended Education.

Wim has been a prolific author of numerous academic and practitioner articles, a leading textbook on Management Control Systems, and teaching cases used in classrooms around the world. He has won several awards, including American Accounting Association (AAA) awards for notable contributions to management accounting research, education, and service in his field.

Wim has served as Director for the AAA and President of its Management Accounting Section. He also chaired the Publications Committee and the Doctoral Colloquium of the European Accounting Association. He is currently the Editor-in-Chief of Management Accounting Research and regularly appears at global academic and practitioner conferences as a speaker.

35 YEARS.
of LSE Summer School

LSE was founded in 1895

and is now ranked 1st in Europe for social sciences and management subjects

Our courses are based on regular LSE undergraduate courses and are taught and examined to the same standards by leading LSE faculty, giving you the same learning experience as full-time students. They can often be taken for credit towards your degree at your home institution.*

Lecturers are experts in their chosen fields and are committed to teaching with academic rigour and contemporary relevance. Our faculty are actively involved in academic research and many advise world-leading companies and Government bodies.

You can choose to study for three, six or nine weeks, in one of the most well-renowned institutions the world, in one of the greatest cities in the world. I'm delighted to invite you to join us in 2023 – to challenge yourself and experience an unforgettable moment in your life.

Campus Life

At Summer School you benefit from the same first-class facilities and services as a full-time LSE student.

LSE is based on one campus and many of the streets around us are pedestrianised, making the campus feel like a real community.

We are in central London near to the River Thames, Covent Garden and Theatreland, the Royal Courts of Justice and many other London sights.

From the bustling Saw Swee Hock Student Centre with its student pub, nightclub and roof terrace, to the brand-new Marshall Building's state-of-the-art classrooms and study areas, we know you'll feel right at home here.

And at the heart of campus sits Lincoln's Inn Fields, gardens which have provided a tranquil oasis in the middle of the city since 1445.

"I wanted to study at LSE because it's one of the best universities in the world. My home institution doesn't offer finance courses, so the summer school was a great opportunity to learn something I would not normally be able to."

Colin Means
Yale University

Making the most of our campus is all part of getting the best learning experience and an authentic taste of life in central London.

Work out with discounted LSE Gym membership, maximise your learning in fully equipped modern teaching spaces, and relax and meet with new friends in the student bars and cafés.

As an LSE student, you will have full access to our iconic library which offers excellent resources, long opening hours, and the perfect study environment.

Social Programme

Our bespoke social programme will help you make life-long friends and build networks that span continents. The varied social programme will be your starting point to making friends and discovering London, one of the world's most diverse and exhilarating cities.

Make the most of our free and ticketed events and our recommendations of things to do around town, from sampling the thriving food scene to discovering unique events!

Spark benefits today. And tomorrow.

- Learn from dynamic leaders within the LSE entrepreneurial ecosystem
- Accelerate your confidence, agility and your capacity to communicate, present and inspire
- Build an entrepreneurial mindset and career-critical skills for life
- Forge a future-facing network of LSE thought leaders, mentors and peers.

“Soft skills are an increasingly important element of a well-rounded graduate. Employers are looking for graduates who can show resilience, flexibility, communication skills and teamwork.

Standout graduates can clearly articulate how the skills they have developed during their studies can translate into the workplace. Being able to knit together an interesting narrative that illustrates your values and aspirations will help prospective employers get a sense of who you are and the value you will bring to their team.”

Applying to Summer School

Entry requirements

Grades: Minimum recommended GPA 3.3/ B+

Prerequisites: 200 and 300 level courses will have conditions of entry. Please check online for details.

Is English your second language?

Applicants need to be proficient in the use of English. If you have had previous university level instruction in English, or live in a country where English is a main language, you need not submit a proficiency certificate. Otherwise you will need:

| Certificate | Required Score |
|----------------------------------|---|
| TOEFL (internet based) | 107 or above (including 25 in each component) |
| IELTS | 7.0 or above (including 7 in all components) |
| CAE | With grade B or better or 185 points overall and a minimum of 185 points in each individual component |

For details of other accepted certificates, please visit:
lse.ac.uk/summer-school

Preparatory English courses will take place in the week prior to each session and are tailored specifically for international students studying at Summer School. Please note that these courses may be delivered wholly online in 2023.

Application and fees

How to apply: Apply online. Popular courses and LSE Residences do fill up quickly, so we recommend that you apply as soon as possible.

How to support your application: You will be asked to provide a copy of your university transcript (if available). If English is not your first language you should include appropriate evidence of English proficiency.

Students taking more than one course will be eligible for discounted rates as outlined below:

Fees: Check online for latest fees at
lse.ac.uk/summer-school

*Student rate applies to full-time students who are currently enrolled at a University or College anywhere in the world.

A £50 application fee must be paid when submitting your application.

Please see lse.ac.uk/summer-school for full tuition fees and terms and conditions.

Programme delivery

Duration: Three weeks (six or nine weeks if attending two or three sessions).

Teaching time: A minimum of 54 hours; Lectures: 36 hours; Classes: 18 hours. (Some courses vary). Recommended self-study: 2-3 hours per day.

Credit and assessment

Credit: Generally courses receive three or four credits in the US system, or 7.5 ECTS in the European system. Please check with your home institution.

Assessment: Two written exams, or a final exam and assessed work.*

Course equivalence: Each course is broadly equivalent to one semester from an undergraduate degree.

* Examinations are not compulsory, but they are encouraged and may be necessary for students requiring credit.

Academic Director's Scholarships

The Academic Director's Scholarships support LSE's 2030 Vision and its guiding principles to deliver excellence through an inclusive and diverse community, extend our impact and ensure a sustainable future.

A limited number of scholarships will be available. Please visit our webpage for the latest information: lse.ac.uk/Summer-School/Scholarships

For course details and fees visit:
lse.ac.uk/summer-school and join our mailing list for updates.

Cancellation of courses

Occasionally it is necessary to cancel or postpone courses. Should a course be subject to a major change, applicants will be offered the option to either transfer to another course or receive a full refund. Any alterations to the programme will be made by the first week of June 2023. If you are coming from abroad, you are strongly advised to take out comprehensive travel insurance for the duration of your stay.

Equality and diversity

To uphold the School's commitment to equality of respect and opportunity, as set out in the Ethics Code (search 'Ethics Code' on the LSE homepage), we will treat all people with dignity and respect, and ensure that no-one will be treated less favourably because of their role at the School, age, disability, gender (including gender identity), race, religion or belief, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity and social and economic background. For details of the School's work on enhancing its equality practices to reflect the requirements of the Equality Act 2010, please see the EDI website (search 'EDI Policy Statement on the LSE homepage').

“Summer school pushed me out of my comfort zone and increased my confidence. It’s the perfect stepping stone for me to go for an international career and reach my potential.”
